

Troopers Seek Public's Assistance in Identifying Theft Suspect

New Castle County – The Delaware State Police are asking for the public's assistance in identifying a suspect responsible for multiple thefts, that have occurred at Home Depot locations throughout New Castle County.

During the month of February 2018, the white male suspect pictured above, has committed thefts at the Christiana, Glasgow and Wilmington Home Depot locations, making off with merchandise valued in excess of $3000.00. In each of the incidents the suspect has loaded a shopping cart with an assortment of power tools and then exited the store without rendering payment, before fleeing in the pictured, silver GMC SUV. The vehicle has been observed with different license plates, both of which have been determined to be fictitious.

Anyone with information regarding these thefts or the identity of the suspect is asked to contact Detective R. Angelucci of the Troop 2 Retail Theft Unit at 302-365-8502.
